

Reading with 3 to 6 year olds

Why read to children not yet at school? Well, because it will help their minds to expand and their hearts to sing! Read with your children regularly and you will witness just how much they learn and what they can do with books! Here are some ideas for sharing books together:

- Read the title of the book and the name of the author and illustrator each time you read. The first time you read a book with your children, also ask them if they can guess what it might be about from listening to the title and looking at the illustration on the cover.
- Read with as much expression as you can. You may feel a little odd about doing this in the beginning but your children will appreciate it!
- Being able to guess what comes next as you are read to is a skill competent readers use all the time. As you read a story with your children, develop their prediction skills by asking 'What do you think will happen next?' at different points in the story.
- Deepen your children's understanding by asking 'What does that remind you of?', 'Why do you think he did that?' and 'What would you have done?'. These kinds of questions connect stories to children's lives and help them to discover how stories work – both of these are essential for literacy development.
- Introduce your children to as wide a variety of books as possible. Share books by the authors that they most enjoy, but introduce them to new authors too.
- Repeat children's favourite stories as often as they ask for them! As they get to know the stories better, invite them to read along with you. Suggest that they 'read' (recite) repeated phrases and sentences like 'I'll huff and I'll puff and blow your house down' or 'Trip, trap, trip trap'.
- Set aside a special time each day when you can enjoy books together. Choose books that you like as well as ones you think will be of special interest to your children. And, of course, also make time to read the stories that your children choose themselves.

Story stars

Connecting with my son through stories

Jama Wezo from Heidelberg in Gauteng loves reading to his three-year-old son Orifha (Ori) Unathi Jama. In fact, he says he started engaging with his son long before he was born, singing to him when he was still in his mother's tummy. "This continued after Ori was born and has become a habit for us," says Jama. "And now that he is older, I'm encouraged by the fact that he asks for stories before he goes to bed every night."

What stories do you tell your son?

I make up some of the stories. Others are from The Bible and others are folktales that I was told as a child.

Some people think reading to children should be done by women. What do you think of this?

I don't agree. Any parent can read to a child!

Do you think reading in your home language is important?

When we read stories to our children in their home language, we instill pride in their spoken language.

What does it feel like when you read to your son?

It feels like a conversation because Ori imitates, responds or disagrees wherever he feels like it!

What difference does being read to make in Ori's life?

He learns a rich vocabulary and how to use words when I read him stories.

What is your advice to other dads thinking about reading to their children?

Listening to stories develops children's imagination. So, if fathers want to help their children develop, one of the things they can do is to read to them while they are still young.

Story corner

Here is the first part of a story about Feleng, the fishmoth, for you to read aloud or tell.

Feleng learns to read (Part 1) by Joanne Bloch

Feleng the fishmoth loved stories.

'Mama,' he said every night, 'please tell us a story. Please, please, please!'

Mama Fishmoth only knew one story, and she was a bit tired of telling it. But Feleng and the other fishmoth children begged so much that she always gave in. She told them about her adventures in the kitchen. She spoke about her long journey there, and about all the big, strange things she had seen in the cupboards. 'Humans use so many things, like cups and plates and spoons,' she said. 'They are very strange!'

The best part of the story came when Mama Fishmoth told the children about all the food she had tasted. 'There were breadcrumbs, apple peels, delicious lumps of porridge and grains of sugar behind the stove...' she said.

'Yum!' they murmured in dreamy voices.

But after that she always reached the terrible part of her story – the day a human had tried to squash her. 'I ran for my life!' said Mama Fishmoth.

One day, Mama Fishmoth told her children to go out for lunch. 'Feleng, you are the oldest,' she said. 'Please take good care of your sisters and brothers.'

Fishmoths don't eat every day, so the little fishmoths were very hungry. They waited until the humans had left and the house was very quiet. Then one by one, they slid out of the crack in the wall where they lived. 'Follow me,' whispered Feleng.

Up, up, up the leg of a huge table they slithered. On it were three or four open books with paper and crayons scattered about. 'Look at all this tasty food,' chuckled Feleng's sister.

But pointing to a crumpled up drawing, Feleng said, 'Don't eat the books. Eat this – it's tastier because of the crayon on it.'

Soon Feleng's brothers and sisters were busy nibbling at the drawing but he was staring at the black squiggles and the bright pictures on the open pages of the book. Then he climbed up into it, and began to move slowly and carefully from squiggle to squiggle.

His little sister Fifi looked up and asked, 'What are you doing, Feleng? Why aren't you eating?'

Feleng just smiled. 'Wait and see,' he said.

What do you think Feleng is up to? Find out in next week's supplement.

Indawo yamabali

Nasi isigaba sokuqala sebali elingofeleng, wakwafishmoth, lokuba ulifundele ngaphandle okanye ulibalise.

UFeleng ufunda ukufunda (Isigaba soku-1) Ngokubhalwa nguJoanne Bloch

UFeleng Fishmoth uyawathanda amabali. 'Mama, ndicela usibalise ibali' wayesitsho qho ngokuhlwa. Ndiyakucela torho, nceda!

UMama Fishmoth wayesazi ibali elinye kuphela, kwaye wayesele ebukruquka kukusoloko elibalisa. Kodwa uFeleng nabanye abantwana bakwaFishmoth babesoloko bemcenga. Wabaxelela ngokubalasela kwakhe kwigumbi lokuphekela. Wathefha ngohambo lwakhe lwalapho, nangezinto ezinkulu nezingaqhelekanga awathi wazibona ekhabhathini. 'Abantu basebenzisa izinto ezininzi, ezifana neekomityi neepleyiti namacephe,' wabalisa watsho. 'Aziqhelekanga ngeyona ndlela!'

Uvutho-ndaba lwebali kuxa uMama uFishmoth exelela abantwana ngeentlobo zokudla athe wazingcamla kolu hambo lwakhe. 'Kwakukho iinguqu zezonka, amaxolo wama-apile, izigaqa zezidudu ezimnandi namagaqa eswekile emva kwesitovu...' ubalise watsho.

'Mh-h-h!' batsho ngamazwi anika umbono wobuncwane.

Emva koko wafika kwisigaba esibi seli bali – mhla umntu wazama ukumshwabadela. 'Ndabalekela ukusindisa ubomi bam!' watsho uMama Fishmoth.

Ngenye imini uMama Fishmoth waxelela abantwana bakhe ukuba mabaphume baye kwisidlo sasemini. 'Feleng, ungoyena umdala,' watsho. 'Nceda ke ubakhathelele odadewenu nabantakwenu.'

AbakwaFishmoths abasoloko besidla yonke imihla, ngako oko abancinci babelambe kakhulu. Balinda de kwemka wonke umntu kwasala kuthe cwaka endlwini. Ze ngabanye ngabanye balambisa baphuma kwiintanda zodonga lwendlu ababehlala kuyo. 'Ndilandeleni,' wasebeza watsho uFeleng.

Benyuka benyuka ngomlenze wetafile enkulu. Phezu kwayo kwakukho iincwadi ezintathu okanye ezine ezivuliweyo zinephepha neekhrayoni zithe saa apho. 'Khangela oku kutya kunencasa kangaka,' wahleka usisi kaFeleng.

Kodwa wathi akujonga kumzobo orhoqololo uFeleng wavakala esithi 'Sukudla iincwadi. Yidla le – inencasa ngenxa yekhrayoni enayo.'

Ngokukhawuleza abantakwabo Feleng noodadewabo babexakeke yimizobo kodwa yena wayeqolozele kwimigcane egosogoso emnyama nakwimifanekiso enemibala eqaqambileyo kumaphepha encwadi evulekileyo. Wenyuka kuyo, ze waqalisa ukuhamba kancinane nangobunono ngemigcane leyo igosogoso.

Udadewabo omncinci uFifi wajonga ze wabuza wathi, 'Wenza ntoni Feleng?'

Wasuka wancuma uFeleng. 'Linda wena, uza kubona,' watsho.

In a time long, long ago, Hippopotamus and Fire were the best friends in the world. Hippopotamus would often visit Fire, but Fire never visited Hippopotamus.

Kudaladala, kwamhlamnene, uMvubu noMlilo yayingabahlobo abakhulu ehlabathini. Kumathuba amaninzi yayiba nguMvubu owayendwendwela uMlilo, kodwa yena uMlilo wawungasoze umbone endwendwela uMvubu.

Then, one day, Hippopotamus said: "I often visit you, but you never visit me. Things can't keep on this way. If you don't visit me soon, I will no longer be friends with you."

"I'd love to visit you," said Fire, "but people are always frightened when I arrive in their homes. But, if you insist, I'll be your guest next Sunday."

Kwathi ngolunye usuku, uMvubu wathi:
"Ngalo lonke ixesha iba ndim ondwendwela
wena awusoze ukhe undindwendwele.
Le asiyondlela ekufanele siqhube ngayo njengabahlobo. Ukuba kuqhubeka ngolu hlobo, ndicinga ukuba kufanele ukuba
siyeke ukuba ngabahlobo."

"Ndingathanda ukukundwendwela," watsho uMlilo. "Kodwa abantu basuke boyike xa ndithe ndaya emizini yabo. Kodwa xa kutsho wena, ndiza kuba lundwendwe
lakho ngeCawe ezayo."

Sunday arrived and, early in the morning,
Fire started to make his way to where Hippopotamus lived.

Yafika iCawe ababegqibe ngayo. Ngentseni yangeCawe leyo, wanduluka uMlilo
ukusinga kwaMvubu.

Wherever Fire went, there were tears and devastation. All the villages he passed through were burned. All the farms went up in smoke.

Kwatshabalala yonke indawo apho
wayedlula khona uMlolo, yangumonakalo
nje. Zonke iilali, iziphaluka neefama awayedlula kuzo uMlilo zatsha zaluthuthu.

When Fire arrived at Hippopotamus' home, even
it started to burn.

Wathi akufika uMlilo
kwaMvubu, yokheleka
ngumlilo indlu kaMvubu.

A few minutes later, Hippopotamus' fur caught fire and Hippopotamus started to burn.

Emveni kwemizuzwana nje embalwa, uboya bukaMvubu baqalisa ukutsha,
waza watsha naye.

Hippopotamus ran
and threw himself into the river. The water
put out the fire, but it was too late to save Hippopotamus' fur.

Wabaleka uMvubu waya kuziphosa emlanjeni. Amanzi
awucima umlilo owawukuye
kodwa akakwazanga
ukusindisa uboya bakhe.

Since that time, the hippopotamus no longer has fur.

Hippopotamus learnt at great cost that those who play with fire end up burning their hair.

Ukusukela ngaloo mini uMvubu akazange aphinde abe noboya kwakhona.

UMvubu wafunda isifundo esibuhlungu sokuba abo badlala ngomlilo baphela betshelwe ziinwele zabo.
